VOL. XVIII] THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1818 [No. 5166.

For the prevention and cure o
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of person can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold it taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, cheeks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of b'ood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric'l affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natura weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

THE SWISS GUIDE.

BY ROBERT SOUTHEY, ESQ.

Mr. Southey, while travelling in Switzerland, was attended by a guide named John Roth. On his quitting him, the guide requested a character, when the poet gave him the following:—in consequence of which, John Roth has become the most popular guide in Switzerland, and is inquired for by all travellers—one of whom he permitted to take a copy of his poetical character:

By my troth, this John Roth
Is an excellent guide;
A joker, a smoker,
And a Savant beside;
A geologician,
A metaphysician,
Who searches how causes proceed;
A system inventer,
An experimenter,
Who raises potatoes from seed!

Each forest and fell
He knoweth full well;
The chatlets and dwellers therein;
The mountains, the fountains,
The ices, the prices,
Every town, every village, and inn.

Take him for your guide,
He has often been tried,
And will always be useful when needed;
In fair or foul weather,
You'll be merry together,
And shake hands at parting as we did.

THE PIG WITH TWO TAILS.

About the year 17—7, when the back settlements of this country were as proverbial for their prejudices as ever the first settlers of Plymouth were, an old woman about 120 miles from Richmond, on James river, was so unfortunate as to have a sow litter a pig with two tails. The circumstance soon over-run the settlement. A general alarm was spread—and the parson of the parish was resorted to by the affrighted people to account for this wonderful phenomenon. The sage divine, after duly considering the affair, declared that as all pigs by nature were endowed with but one tail, it was probable that the devil was officious in the generation of this litter; and as he cannot make any thing perfect, those two tails were left as a mark of his imperfection. The parson further observed, that as other neighbors had sows on whom the evil spirit might have tried his operations, his partiality for this old woman was a proof that she must have a connection with him, and that she could be nothing less than a WITCH. The poor woman was immediately apprehended, and it was determined to tie her up in a sack and throw her into the river, when if she FLOATED she was a witch and must be HUNG—if she SUNK then she was innocent. A vast concourse of people assembled on the banks to see the operation; and while the church-wardens were absolutely engaged in drawing the bag over her, a colonel Taylor who lately arrived from Ireland, hit on the following stratagem to save her:

"By my soul," said he to the wardens, "ye are all wrong—you know nothing of witches—now in Ireland we have found out a much surer way, with but half the trouble." The people were anxious to hear the Irish method; "why (says the colonel) my jewels, we put the woman in one scale and the big church bible in the other—if the bible outweighs the woman she is a witch and must be burnt—but if the woman is the heaviest, she is no witch, by my soul."—The colonel's method was approved of—the trial made, and thus the life of a woman preserved, who, but for Colonel Taylor's stratagem, must have fallen a sacrifice to the prejudices of an illiterate people.

CATHARINE II.

After a vain attempt to reconcile the inconsistency of character in this great Empress, the author of her "Secret Memoirs," concludes with the following apostrophe: "O Catharine! dazzled by thy greatness, of which I had a fair view; charmed with thy beneficence, which rendered so many individuals happy; seduced by the thousand amiable qualities that have been admired in thee, I would fain have erected a monument to thy glory.—But torrents of blood flow in upon me, and inundate my design; the chains of thirty millions of slaves ring in my ears, and deafen me; the crimes which have reigned in thy name, call forth my indignation. I throw away my pen, and exclaim—Let there be henceforth no glory without virtue! Let injustice and depravity be transmitted with no other laurels to posterity than the snakes of Nemesis."

ALEXANDRIA:
THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Wednesday, March 4, 1818.

I was aware the whole time I was doing it, that my occasional side glances at the distemper of speechification, which has so long clung to our proceedings in the house of representatives, like the murrain to cattle, was regarded by our orators with no great favor; but that did not dismay me—because I was convinced that that distemper is a great nuisance to the nation, and that it could never be abated but by exposing it to ridicule. I was averse to it, besides, upon the grounds that its universal practice denotes a great want of taste and of judgment, and an utter absence of knowledge respecting the nature, the constituent qualities, and the uses of eloquence: but I relied, in my observations, chiefly upon the mischievous waste of time it occasioned, and the consequent detriment to the public interests, to private rights, and to the justice due to individuals. Had I no other object in view but a vague display of sagacity, I should rejoice at, as on the other hand I do most sincerely deplore, the lively illustration of my notions afforded by the debate which took place yesterday in the house of representatives on Mr. Sergeant's motion to fix a day for the conclusion of the present session. A motion avowedly founded by that very able member on the fact that the business dispatched by congress in the present session, bears no reasonable proportion to the time that has been expended on it, and having for its object to impel members to resort to the only practicable means of dispatching the public business with more celerity. Neither he nor any member could within the walls of the house commit that trespass upon individual soreness of feeling, which fortunately it is the privilege of the press to exercise, or to point out the failings and follies to which the people owe this distemper in some of their chosen representatives:—But the thing spoke for itself; and to do gentlemen justice, there seemed to be no unwillingness on their parts generally to admit the existence of the failing—they were only reserve about the quantum of it that belonged to themselves—each, with a generosity less uncommon than people choose to acknowledge, declining to touch his share of it. In a word, this distemper, the cacoethes loquendi, which usurps so much of the public time, never has, since the demolition of the tower of Babel, committed greater devastation than it is at this moment committing on the public affairs and private common sense of the people of the United States. This however is not the place to speak my whole thoughts in on the subject, which I mean to reserve for a future series of essays upon some topic—under what head, I cannot now say,—but it certainly shall not be eloquence. Mr. Sergeant and the gentlemen who supported his motion, considered the fixing of a limit to the session, if not a cure, at least one of the best means of diminishing the virus of the distemper, by quickening the useful motions of the members, and putting stoppers, as the sailors call them, on their tongues. The conduct of gentlemen on this occasion, however desirous they might be to cure the disease, clearly showed that they did not look to the proper medicine, and that they had no notion of beginning to exhibit the only efficacious specific—antiloquacity.

The proposition of Mr. Sergeant was opposed by Mr. Lowndes by an argument which ought ever to be completely successful, namely, the absolute impossibility of rising on the 31st of March (the day hinted at by Mr. Sergeant) without peculiar wrong to the public business and to the claims of multitudes of individuals, which had already been too long kept in a state of suspension; that there was a greater accumulation of necessary business at this time remaining unfinished than at any other period; that there could be no fair comparison instituted between the present and former sessions, since it was a fact that the increase of business was such, that there had been more of it before one committee this session than before all the committees of the house put together ten years ago. A variety of motions were made and rejected, and the whole ended in the adoption of a resolution that a joint committee of both houses should be appointed to consider and report when the present session of congress may be terminated.

Mr. Sergeant's proposition was supported by Messrs. Bassett, Garnett, and Johnson of Kentucky, Mr. Lowndes' by Messrs Simkins, Harrison, Pitkin, Tucker, and Taylor.

COMMON COUNCIL,

For the ensuing year.

EDM: I. LEE, Mayor.

FREDERICK JACOBSON.

It is stated in the N. York Advocate that the execution of this man, who was convicted in September last, of sinking the ship Aristides, is suspended for sixty days from the 6th of March, "to give the Supreme Court of the United States time to consider the doubts entertained by Judge Livingston with regard to the legality of his conviction"

PAPER-MAKING MACHINE.

The following short notice of a very valuable improvement in Paper making, is copied from a letter just received from a gentleman near Wilmington, (Delaware) which is another evidence of the progress of American genius. The Messieurs Gilpins, who have their paper mills on Brandywine, near Wilmington, have so far completed this valuable machinery, that it makes three reams per hour. The person who attends the machine, puts in the rags, which are not touched again by man till he lays hold of the perfect paper, at the opposite side, to direct the end of it to the receiving reel, where it winds on with great velocity, what may be termed one endless sheet.

The sheet which was thus winding in my presence was thirty inches wide;—he can reduce the width at pleasure, and can cut the sheets to any length. The paper thus made, from the finest bank paper to coarse printing, comes out of rollers as smooth as sattin. At common speed this machine makes, attended by two men and one boy, as much as the old machinery by twelve men and six boys. With all common paper, such as for printing, all the time for pressing, &c. is saved. This improvement will save to Messrs. Gilpins' 6 to 12,000 dollars a year in wages only. They have secured the patent. [Bal. Fed. Gaz.

THE SPECIE.

The anxiety respecting the specie on board the ship Neptune, from Jamaica, ashore at the Hook, was relieved yesterday by its arrival in the cutter Active, Captain Cahoone.

Since the Neptune was driven ashore, we have noticed the alacrity with which every measure was adopted for the safety of the property; and it is now only necessary to state, that on Thursday, Capt. Cornelius Vanderbilt, in the boat Dread, went down to the Hook, and with the advice of Capt Cahoone, of the cutter Active, and Mr. Forrest, of the bank, got alongside of the ship, and took in the specie, amounting to 400,200 dollars, and conveyed it to the cutter, at anchor in the Cove. The cutter got under way yesterday morning, with a fine breeze at S. S. W. and reached this port in safety with her valuable cargo, about half past 12; and before the closing of the bank, we had the pleasure of seeing the money carried past our office to be deposited.

It is our duty to state, that not only the master of the Neptune, but Captain Cahoone of the cutter, Mr. Forrest of the bank, and Captain Vanderbilt of the Dread, have discovered a solicitude with respect to the importance of their charge, which reflects upon them the highest honor.

The Neptune, Capt. Cowban, sailed from Kingston on the 27th ult. and has also on board some tierces of coffee, which have been brought up in lighters.

His Britannic Majesty's brig Rifleman, Capt. Duff, was to sail next day for Havana and N. York, also with specie for the U. S. Bank, and for individuals.

The editors of the Gazette have received by the Neptune, Kingston papers to the 25th ult. from which they have copied the ship news that appears in another part of this day's paper.

The following passengers in the Neptune, came up yesterday in the cutter: Mr. and Mrs. Muirhead, Mr. Andrew Mecken, Mr. Charles Noble, Mr. Allen Ross, and servants.

We learn by these passengers that on the 26th of January, the day before the Neptune sailed, Sir Home Popham, in the frigate Sybelle, Capt. Malcolm, arrived here from England, to take the command of that station, in the room of Admiral Douglas, who was on the eve of returning to England.

The agent of the specie in the Neptune (Mr. Dance) arrived here yesterday morning in the mail coach from Philadelphia, in time to attend to its delivery.

The Neptune has received but very little injury, and it is supposed she will be afloat to-day.

From the Baltimore Patriot.

Extract of a letter from a respectable house in New-Orleans to a merchant in this city, dated

New-Orleans, Jan 24.

DEAR SIR,—By the Balize, captain Harding, for Baltimore, we take the liberty of advising you of the state of the markets, as far as we are enabled to ascertain.

By an arrival from England a few days ago, the cotton market received a sudden check, and came to a dead stand, in consequence, it is said, of a depression there of a penny to 2d. There has been sold a few bales to-day, to fill up a ship, at 32 c. but this cannot be quoted as the fair price; some think it will open again at 30, and remain steady. About 15,000 bales have already been sold, which is considered at about 1-8 of the present crop, at 30, 32, 32½, 33, 34 and 35. Sugar has advanced 1 cent, and stands steady at 10. Molasses 44 a 45, and scarce; of the former the crop is estimated at 35,000 hhds. while the latter will not exceed 12 a 15,000 hhds. Tobacco, of the old crop, is nearly all out of the market, not more than 3000 hhds remain unsold, and of the new crop there has been but few hhds. come down; for the first quality 8 and 9 c. has been paid; of the new crop it is estimated there will be nearly 50,000 hhds. brought to this market from Kentucky and Tennessee. Pork has just began to come down, and is at present $18 on an average; there will be packed in the western country not less than 36,000 bbls. (Colonel James Johnson, of Georgetown, Ken. is under contract to pack 12,000 bbls.—this we had from him personally.) Flour has been up to $16, and has declined to 10 a 12.

As soon as the western waters give way there will be an immense quantity of produce brought down; of course many ships will be wanted to take it off—at present there are about 200 sail of ships, brigs and schooners, most of them lying idle for want of freight. A few weeks more will, in all probability, bring down loading in plenty; and those who send vessels here in April and May will, we think, do better than those here now.

Lard is 25 c. but will decline as it becomes more plenty; butter 20 a 25; candles 23 a 25 for best mould tallow; 60 a 62 1-2 for spermaceti; bricks 15 a 20 per 1000; hay 2 50 per 100 lbs; coffee, best Havana green, 29 a 30; cheese, best, 18 a 20; chocolate 20; hams 9 a 10; yarns 8 a 9; lead, bars and pigs, 5 a 6; lumber $20 per M; nails, all sizes, 8 a 9 c; nankeens, long yellow, 1 87 1-2; short 87 a 90; oil, Florence, 30 flasks, 5 a 87; Bordeaux, 12 bottles, 7 a 9; sperm, oil 75 a 80; cod oil $22 per bbl. and scarce; salt 2 25 per bbl. of 3 1-4 bushels; soap, brown, 11 a 13 c; Jamaica spirits, 4th proof, 1 50; Cognac brandy, 4th proof, 2 87 1-2 a 3, scarce and in demand—several vessels from Bordeaux have not brought a pipe; N. E. do. 70 a 75 c.;—whiskey, old, 80; teas, gunpowder, 1 50; imperial 1 75; hyson 1 25; skin 1 00; tin 18 a $20 per box; wine, Madeira, L. P. 3 50; L. M. 3 00; sherry 1 75;—Teneriffe and Lisbon 1 50; Sicily 1 75; claret, cask, $60; case 6 a 12 per doz.

These prices are quoted partly from personal knowledge and from the weekly price current; but such is the fluctuating state of this market, that not much dependence can be placed in its remaining steady for any length of time.

Freights.—To Europe—cotton 1 1-8d a 1 1-4d per lb; tobacco 1 1-2 cents per lb. Atlantic States—cotton 1 a 1 1-2 cents per lb; tobacco 9 a $10 per hhd; sugar and molasses 8 per hhd; barrel provisions 1 75 a 2.

Exchange on London, 2 per cent. U. P.; France 545 a 550 P. D.; Atlantic States 2 a 3 per cent. and even to 5 per cent. discount; Western States 2 a 5 per cent. do; dollars par; doubloons 16 1-4 a 16 1-2; United States' Bank 140.

POSTSCRIPT.

January 26.—The Balize not having sailed, affords us a further opportunity to say, that contrary to the expectation of many observing men, purchasers have come forward to day and taken off about 1000 bales of cotton at 32 c. for the first quality; there has been a great deal brought down within a few days, and the Lubec remains crowded with it—the holders declining to take less than 32 c. for prime, and 29 for second quality.—Very warm and agreeable summer weather. Farenheit's thermometer being the most of yesterday and to day at 75° above 0 in the shade.

From the same.

We have been favored, by a respected commercial friend, with the following price current, and observations on the state of the markets at St. Jago de Cube, received by the Franklin, captain Russel, arrived at this port yesterday.

Prices at St. Jago de Cuba, Feb. 7.

IMPORTS.

Flour, sup. 20 a $21—not more than 800 bbls in first and second hands, and bakers with short supplies.

Beef 17 a 20 per bbl. very scarce, consumption not very good, 100 sufficient in an assorted cargo.

Pork 30 a 32, scarce and in demand, consumption not very great; a few bbls. (say 60) sufficient in an assorted cargo.

Lard 25 per lb.—600 kegs at market, very dull.

Butter 25 a 31 1-2; fresh yellow scarce and in demand.

Rice, new, 7 a $8 per 100 lbs. in request; old 6 do. very flat.

Bread, navy, 8 a 9 per bbl. scarce and saleable; pilot 10 per bbl. do.

Candles, mould, sixes, 22 a 25 per lb. plenty and sales.

Soap, American yellow, 10 a 14 per lb. lively, though plenty.

Codfish 5 a $6 per 100 lbs. lively, though plenty, good in demand in small casks.

Herrings 5 a 6 per bbl. rather flat.

Naval stores plenty and unsaleable—improving latterly.

Cheese, American, 12 a 20, markets glutted.

Russia sheetings 16 a $17 per piece—plenty.

India goods do not enjoy a constant demand, being purchased principally for the eastern trade; a cargo, by being stored, would eventually pay well.

EXPORTS

Coffee 15 a $16 per 100 lbs. new crop coming in slowly.

Muscovadoes 6 a 6 25 per 100 lbs. becoming abundant.

Molasses 30 a 34 per hhd. cask included.

Cotton 28 per 100 lbs. scarce and in demand.

Tobacco 12 a 16 per 100 lbs.—plenty.

Beeswax, yellow, 32 per 100 lbs.

DUTIES

Imports.—On flour 7 50 per bbl; provisions generally 26 per cent. on valuation of two thirds market price; articles of luxury, iron bars, candles, handkerchiefs, cotton, and furniture generally, 4 per cent on like valuation.

Exports.—On molasses $ 75 per hhd; coffee 50 cts. per 100 lbs; sugars, brown and muscovado, 44; white clayed 66.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The establishment of Sunday Schools in this city has more than answered the most sanguine expectations of the friends of that measure. Fifteen hundred young immortals are, on the day set apart for the worship of the living God, instructed in the precepts and principles of the Christian religion. "Suffer little children (said the Saviour of the universe,) to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven." He took these young and blooming candidates for Heaven in his arms, and blest them." Here is an example for those to follow who are engaged in this honorable service, and we have the same reason to believe, that the same Being will again add his blessing to such labors. At this interesting and all important season of human life, a season on which the future character so essentially depends, it is impossible for imagination to calculate on the benefits resulting from the establishment of Sunday schools. The day which is so often devoted to the indulgence of vice and idleness, and on which children have by parental neglect been brought up into an habitual contempt of every thing sacred, is now devoted to its proper purpose, to teach to the heirs of immortal glory the road to their future residence. This may literally be denominated plucking brands from the burning—infant lips which probably never mention their Creator but in the language of blasphemy, are taught for the first time reverence for his name.—The following fact, for the authenticity of which we can personally vouch, will shew what important consequences may follow from the conduct of a child. A man who lived in habits of regular and notorious neglect of God, and of sacred things, was blest with a child on whom his heart doated with all the fondness of a parent. It is unnecessary, we presume, to add, that the boy was educated in the habits of the father, that is with an entire indifference to sacred things.

At length the boy was put to school, where his proficiency was so rapid, that he soon was taught to read with propriety and to comprehend what he read:—In a short time the boy became thoughtful and pensive, to the utter astonishment of his parents.—At length the mystery of this pensive cast of character was explained. The boy had by some accident obtained the possession of a solitary leaf of the new testament, which he perused with great attention and on which he was accustomed to meditate. This incident struck so forcibly on the minds of the parents that they have now become converts to that religion, which was formerly the subject of their banter and scorn.—It may not be amiss to mention, that the father had expressly forbidden his children to read the bible, and to prevent it would not suffer the sacred volume to be brought into the house.—Thus was this little boy in the hand of Divine Providence made an instrument for the conversion of his parents.

ORATORY OF DR. CHALMERS.

In the Dumfries Courier, of the 9th of December last, we find the following extract from the last number of Blackwood's Magazine. How exalted must Dr. Chalmers be in the estimation of all who believe that the inimitable character here given of him is correct!

In every step of his progress he seems to dissolve by the touch of his magic wand that stony sleep of lethargy in which some noble feelings of nature had for a season been entranced. He gives us no new arguments, no new images, but he scatters the vivid rays of poetic splendour, over those which by the very frequency of repetition, have ceased to have any power either upon our reason or our fancy. We are lost in a vague maze of wonder, how it should happen that all these things seemed so trivial to us before—how arguments so convincing should have appeared weak, or images so appaling should have passed tamely and dimly before our eyes.

It arises not from the weakness, but the will, of Chalmers, that he very seldom keeps us long at the summit of this elevation. He seems to be insensible that the splendors which he has revealed to us are either new or dazzling. His genius regards the universe as its birth-right, and he has no undue partiality for the richer and more magnificent regions of his domain. With the same overpowering sweep of skill, he brings us at once from the Heaven to the earth, and from the earth to the Heaven, and, however majestic may have been his elevation, he has not the air of feeling any degradation from his descent. He compels us, indeed to follow his footsteps into the basest tracks of mortality, and lays open the infirmities, the frailties, the errors, the vileness, of our nature, with the keen indignation of a Juvenal, no less willingly than he has inflamed and purified our spirits with the angelic enthusiasm of a Milton. But there is diffused over the humblest of his representations a redeeming breath of christian sublimity, a thousand times more ennobling than all the stern and unbending dignities of the Porch. He does not, like the philosophers of old, confine all grandeur to contemplation—he clothes with majesty the most common offices of life, and teaches that the meanest of his christian hearers may exert, in the bosom of his family, and in the manly perseverance of painful labor, virtues more lofty and divine than were ever called up by the pure spirit of the Stagyrite, or ever floated upon the mystical or foreboding dreams of Plato. These are things which fill the walls of his church with crowds the most mingled, yet the most harmonious, that were ever collected together for social enjoyment or social good. It is this that makes the wise and the great come to have their souls led like infants by the liberal hand of his genius, and make the poor man and the ignorant steal from the precious moments of his week-day toil, that his spirit may be sustained and kindled by the inspiring voice of Chalmers. He is not the preacher of any one class; he is the common orator of man.

Were our hearts, indeed, as dead and as cold as monumental marble, they could not fail to sympathise with such a preacher. He has given up his soul to the full sway of his emotions, and he summons from the depths of a convulsed spirit things more awful, as well as more lovely, than could ever be dreamed by the ordinary mind of man. We need only to look upon him to see that his heart is bursting with the deluge of his zeal. His countenance glares with the feeling of unutterable things; his voice quivers, and his limbs tremble; and we perceive that he is in the agony of inspiration.

It has, we know, been said by some, that Chalmers has in his noble Astronomical Discourses, all along combated a phantom, and that those objections to the truth of Christianity have never been raised, which it is their object to overthrow. On this very account are his discourses invaluable. The objections which he combats are not so much the clear, distinct, and decided averments of infidelity, as they are the confused, glimmering, and disturbing fears and apprehensions of noble souls bewildered among the boundless magnificence of the universe.

Died,

At Savannah, on the 11th instant, after a long and lingering illness, Mr. PHILIP D. WOOLHOPTER, (formerly editor and proprietor of the Savannah Museum) a native of Upper Canada, aged 40 years. Honesty, sincerity, and sympathy for the unfortunate, are qualities which none who were acquainted with him will question as being his. Suavity of temper, and sociability of manners, not only endeared him to his friends, but rendered him a welcome visitor among those whose principles with respect to public affairs were at variance with his own. The affection which he bore, and the attention that he paid, to his family, were creditable to his heart as a man, and exemplary even in a husband and parent; and the tears of his widow and orphans will remain long as testimonials of this truth, that those who knew him best are the most deeply impressed with the value of his worth and friendship.

Fan-Sash Making

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

Sully for Sale.

THIS Estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaister of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation, and those now untilled are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed: the outhouses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

CHARLES COUNTY COURT, August Term, 1817

ON application to Charles County Court, by petition in writing of Samuel C. S. Jack, of Charles County, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Samuel C. S. Jack has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said Samuel C. S. Jack is in actual confinement for debt, and the said Samuel C. S. Jack having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles County Court, and answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him: It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said Samuel C. S. Jack be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the district of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of March next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court at Charlestown in said county, on the said third Monday in March next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause why the said Samuel C. S. Jack should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws of this state as prayed. Given under my hand this 12th day of January 1819.

Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received, direct from the proprietors, the following valuable MEDICINES, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronized by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a family medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great, that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a stereotype label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Bilious Pills," and on the end of the label the words, "Samuel Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's celebrated Eye Water,

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources.—Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment,

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

Dr. Rawson's Anti-Bilious and Stomachic Bitters,

For weakly and infirm constitutions. Price 37½ cents a box.

Hinckley's Infallible Remedy for the Piles,

A most valuable medicine. Price 50 cents a box.

Thompson's Aromatic Tooth Paste,

For whitening and preserving the teeth—it may be used with the greatest safety. Price 50 cents a box.

Specific Drops for the Tooth Ache,

Which, in almost every case, gives instant relief in that distressing complaint. Price 37½ cents a bottle.

Cooley's Vegetable Elixir, for Coughs, Asthmas, Consumptions, &c.

A very valuable medicine in those complaints. Price 50 cents a bottle.

For sale, in Alexandria, by Dr. Rich'd. H. Little; in Washington City, by Dr. David Ott; in Georgetown, by Dr. John Ott, Otho M. Linthium & Co. and Nathaniel Jewett.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE's MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, cheeks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in
